Ted Funkhauser of the Illinois Department of Public Aid and the Rev. John Henry Williams of New Salem Missionary Baptist Church in Venice hold up a bill promoting the state's new "Work Pays" program.

Public aid program changing

For ADC recipients, work will finally pay off

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

While hard work has always been considered the way to success, for many families on public aid it has often meant a loss in income.

However, a new program for families receiving money through the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program will help change that.

Work Pays will allow aid recipients to earn money while still receiving ADC benefits.

"It's a tremendous incentive," said Ted Funkhauser, Illinois Department of Public Aid administrator for southern Madison County. "It's an effort to provide an incentive to go to work and not lose all their benefits because of it."

In the past, Funkhauser said, after public aid recipients added up the cost of child care and the amount of aid they would lose by going to work, they would end up with little extra for finding work.

"They were saying 'I'm not gaining any ground at all, I'm losing ground,'" he said. "It was very true, especially at the lower end of the economic scale."

(See ADC, Page 4A)

McFarland said.

"We find that one out of 10 service calls do have serious problems such as plugged up flues or chimneys. They get clogged by a bird's nest or something over the summer."

Carbon monoxide poisoning is the most common problem with poorly maintained furnaces, and a clogged chimney is a common cause of carbon monoxide problems, McFarland said.

Purchasing a carbon monoxide detector is a good idea, McFarland said.

In addition to minimizing the risk of carbon monoxide poisoning, a pre-season cleaning and adjusting of burners and pilots can boost a furnace's efficiency, McFarland said.

"It really doesn't cost a thing because they'll get the money back on their power bill," he said.

People who are unwilling or unable to afford a service call should check to see if the bearings on the furnace blower motor need oil and change furnace filters every 30 days, he said.

Burners putting out a yellow flame instead of a blue flame can be an indication that something is wrong.

But McFarland said those who choose not to have their furnace checked out now may regret it when problems surface in December — after cold weather has set in and the need for heat is much greater.

Meanwhile, the Alton Telegraph's Weather Service is predicting slightly warmer temperatures this week.

Cold weather creates new demand

A month after running themselves ragged trying to keep up with overworked air conditioners, service people are busy checking furnaces during a sudden cold snap.

Calling it common to look at the furnace and say it is the best bet to avoid a risk of carbon monoxide poisoning, according to Illinois Power Co. spokesman Jim Buck.

"The best piece of advice is to make sure your furnace is working," he said.

Dave McFarland of McFarland Heating and Cooling in Granite City said an early-season checkup is relatively inexpensive and can help avoid problems — down the road.

"It's kind of like having your car checked out before taking a trip to California,"

McFarland said.

While health care remains a hot topic on the national political scene, Nameoki Township officials have arranged for free health services for township residents.

"All the neighbors feel a terrible sense of loss from the deaths of these two young men," said neighbor Ed O'Brien, who heard screams and ran to help.

State and federal chemical exposure standards do take into consideration the differences between adults and children or the effect of multiple exposure, according to an environmental group about to release a second set of statistics on tap water contamination.

The Environmental Working Group, which released a report entitled "Weed Killers by the Glass" in mid-August, was expected to release a second round of tap water test results Tuesday.

The initial report showed high levels of atrazine in 40 percent of 210 of 29 cities tested — including Granite City and St. Louis. The results were disputed by state, federal and water company officials.

The chemicals, along with simazine, are known collectively as triazines. They are agricultural chemicals used in the Midwest to aid corn production. The chemicals enter the water system by runoff.

In November 1994, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency initiated a special review of triazines because of concerns about the risks of cancer from long-term exposure.

The environmental group has not set a safe level for cyanazine, but on Aug. 2 the EPA announced that DuPont, which markets the chemical under the trade name Bladex, would phase out production over three years.

According to the EPA, numerous groundwater and surface water studies have shown the presence of triazines in drinking water, especially

Station owner faces fight

By Nicole Vaughn
Staff writer

Caseyville officials are trying to shut down a gas station whose owner has been operating without a license since the past month and who has not yet brought the building up to code to qualify for a license.

But Khalid Ashkar, owner of the Caseyville Shell, 2411 Old Country Inn Drive, said he is trying to get the necessary work done and is being treated unfairly by village officials.

"They gave me 30 days (to get the work done) and I still have time on that," Ashkar said. "I'm being made out to be the bad guy ... all I want is to cooperate with the village."

That 30-day period ends Oct. 10.

But during Wednesday night's Caseyville Village Board meeting, board members said they have treated Ashkar fairly. They said Ashkar has defied the rules.

"Turning on the water does not authorize him to do business," Trustee Jim Bivens said. "He needs a license. We're not asking him to do anything, we don't ask everyone else to do."

On Thursday, Caseyville police cited Ashkar, a Pontoon Beach resident, for operating without a business license. Caseyville officials said.

Wednesday they will seek a court order to shut down the business.

Ashkar said that, short of a court order, he will not close his doors, although the station actually will be closed in the next few days for installation of new gas pumps.

Ashkar maintains that the Caseyville Shell was not in compliance with village code when he took it over last month. While that may be true, the village's occupancy permit issued in January 1994 — established in January 1994 — prohibits him from getting a license until the business does meet village requirements.

During an inspection earlier this month, Village Administrator Jim Eaton cited 17 "defects" on the property, items Ashkar said he is working to correct. Those items range from covering or removing exposed wiring to cutting down weeds.

Ashkar also owns the Pontoon Beach Shell station at Pontoon Road and Route 116. He has operated that business for a year without any problems, he said.

Deputies to get 90 new guns

Madison County sheriff's deputies will soon have more firepower.

The County Board Wednesday approved the purchase of 90 new semiautomatic handguns at a cost of $31,050.

The .40-caliber Smith & Wesson Sigma SW-40 weapons will replace Smith & Wesson .357-caliber magnum revolvers that are about 20 years old.

The weapons will be purchased directly from the manufacturer. According to the resolution, the department could not find a lower price for that equipment.

Capt. Robert Hertz, administrative assistant to Sheriff Bob Churchich, said deputies need more firepower to offset weapons increasingly common among criminals.

"We are bringing ourselves up to par with what we may face on the street," he said, adding that fewer criminals are using revolvers.

The department's current revolvers have six rounds per magazine. The semiautomatic SW-40 holds one round in its chamber and a clip of 15 rounds. Deputies will carry two additional clips or a total of 46 rounds.

"We have deputies with six rounds confronting people who may have 16," Hertz said, adding that reloading can pose problems in that type of confrontation.

Township wins grants; supervisor is honored

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

Two Chouteau Township parks will get a boost, and the township office will get a new computer, thanks to development grants.

The Association of Towns and Townships recently announced that Chouteau Township Supervisor Pat Polley was nominated for the American Hometown Leadership Awards, and was among 250 nominees to receive an economic development grant from Wal-Mart.

Polley was nominated for the award by Township Clerk Barbara Overton. "I thought it was just the thing to do for her," Overton said. "She's always willing to help — it's time she got some notice."

"It's fantastic for Wal-Mart to sponsor something like this," Polley said. "I never knew she had done it, so it was quite a surprise. A pleasant surprise."

"And I'm sure the community will put it to good use."

The grant, $1,000, is earmarked for community improvement projects which will help attract new employers to the area.

"As we watch the federal government streamlining its activities, giving more responsibility to local officials, it becomes increasingly important for small-town officials to display the kind of civic leadership that these honorees have shown," said Tom Halicki, executive director of NATA.

The group is a nonprofit organization working to strengthen the effectiveness of America's smaller communities.

The award recognizes outstanding civic leadership exhibited by individuals who serve on a local government's elected board or council or advisory committee in a community with a population of fewer than 50,000 people.

Polley said that Chouteau Park in South Roxana and Hartford will each receive $500, and the rest will be used to purchase a computer for the township office.

Ethnic festival planned here

By Bob Slatte
Staff writer

Granite City's Centennial celebration next year will include a first-ever International Ethnic Festival in the downtown area, organizers announced last week.

The proceeds from the four-day event, to be held May 2-5, will be earmarked for a beautification project in the city.

"We hope to make this an annual event," said Alderman Brian Fuzessery, chairman of the City Council's Downtown Committee and one of the festival organizers.

He said the festival, similar to the Italianfest in Collinsville and the Oktoberfest in Belleville, could draw as many as 20,000 people to the downtown area.

It will include a golf tournament and VIP party, a 5K run, a bike ramble and a food festival on the Magna Bank parking lot downtown featuring samples from a variety of ethnic cuisine.

The event will be kicked off by a parade beginning at Granite City High School and

Two stages downtown will feature continuous entertainment throughout the festival.

More than a dozen organizations representing ethnic groups are expected to participate in the event.

A committee of 20 persons has been formed to coordinate the event.

Anyone interested in serving on the committee is welcome to contact Alderman Fuzessery at 451-2414, Co-Chairman Art Asadorian at 451-1353, or may attend the next meeting of the committee. The meeting is scheduled to be held at Jessica's Cottage, 1304 Niedringhaus Ave., at 6 p.m. Monday.

An ethnic food cookbook is also planned for publication and sale at the festival. Recipes may be mailed to Jessica's Cottage or cookbook Chairman Georgia Engeller at 3200 Country Place Lane, Granite City, IL 62040.

"Each recipe will include a brief history about where the dish originated."

Benefit to aid beating victim

By Scott Wuerz
Staff writer

Although it will be a long time before Jean Hubbard's injuries from a brutal attack last summer are healed, her family hopes it can raise enough money during a benefit to help her.

A car wash will be held from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 30, at Camelot Bowl, 801 Belt Line Road, in Collinsville, to help the victim pay her hospital bills.

Hubbard, 40, who lived in Glen Carbon at the time of the incident and still lives in the Metro East, was shopping at the Edwardsville Shop N Save on Main Street at 10:30 a.m. Aug. 21. As she left the store, she had no way to know that her life would soon be changed forever.

As Hubbard made her way across the parking lot toward her car, she was suddenly and violently assaulted by a man alleged to be her ex-husband, John S. Toth, 32, of Morganfield, Ky.

Soon the attack escalated, with Toth allegedly pulling out a linoleum knife and beginning to slash Hubbard in the wrists, chest and face.

Shoppers called 911, but by the time police arrived, the suspect had fled the scene.

Dickmann said the suspect was later apprehended after he called police about the crime. He was returned to Edwardsville and remains in the Madison County Jail without bail, awaiting trial on charges of aggravated assault and attempted first-degree murder.

A trial date has not been set, but Hubbard's family has been told the trial will not likely begin until spring.

Authorities said they found out that Toth had rented a car in Southern Illinois in an apparent effort to conceal his identity when Hubbard was attacked.

They said that Toth is behind bars is of little solace to Hubbard and her family.

Hubbard's sister, Mary Cuff of Collinsville, said she is relieved that her sister's attacker is off the street. But Hubbard is unable to work at her job at Kinko's Construction because of her injuries and is now struggling financially.

"Jean is eligible for victim's benefits, but it may be months before she receives them," Cuff said. "So, for the time being, she is living on a monthly check of about $269 a month and food stamps."

Cuff said Hubbard lost her left eye in the incident, and the tendons in both her wrists were cut to the point that she will be permanently impaired.

Holbrook sets town meeting for Thursday

State Rep. Tom Holbrook, D-11th District, will conduct a town meeting in Granite City at 10 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 28. "This is my chance to explain some of the things about the legislature that you've only read about," Holbrook said. "But more importantly, I can learn what your goals are for the next session in January."

The hour-long meeting will be held in the council chambers at City Hall.

Old Newsboys Day has been a St. Louis tradition since 1957 - and now you can be apart of it.

For 38 years, volunteers have taken to the streets to sell these special Old Newsboys Day editions.

Every penny raised is donated to children's charities in the St. Louis area. In fact, volunteers collected $180,000 for over 250 charities last year alone.

Now you can join the ranks of numerous volunteers on Old Newsboys Day (Thursday, November 2nd). You'll receive an Old Newsboys button and apron, as well as a bundle of valuable coupons just for helping out.

To sign up or for more information, please call our Old Newsboys Day Hotline at (314) 821-0210. It's that easy to take part in a great St. Louis tradition!

LOCAL NEWS

United Way helps pantry help others

Thanks to the generosity of United Way Partnership supporters, the Glen Ed Food Pantry is celebrating its 15th year of putting food on people's tables and filling children's backpacks with school supplies.

Among the range of services, pantry director Judy Moody's favorite is sending children back to school with new book bags filled with supplies.

"The school supplies are the single most important thing we do," she said. "They can take the supplies with them the first day of school like everyone else. I feel so good about the school supplies."

The pantry also offers adult tutoring for the General Educational Development exam, teaches life skills and provides after-school tutoring and computer lessons for grade schoolers.

Ecumenically based, the Glen Ed Food Pantry calls on churches to help in donations and offers referral services for help in paying rent and utility bills.

On Aug. 19, students not only picked up supplies, but 79 got new shoes donated by the Edwardsville-Glen Carbon Lions Club. Several hundred children got off to a good start at school with book bags filled with paper, pencils and other necessities.

Jo Gibson, pantry board president, said, "The kids get singled out" if they appear to be poor in relatively affluent Edwardsville. "We have a segment of poor people ... but poverty is not as noticeable here."

The pantry, behind the Madison County Sheltered Care Home, is in its fifth location since it was founded in 1980. It has grown to serve the increasing populations of Edwardsville and Glen Carbon and surrounding smaller communities.

The pantry was founded by Peggy Harris at Eden United Church of Christ's The Well in Glen Carbon, which relocated to the convent at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Edwardsville.

It was forced to move to nearby St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, then to the basement of the Edwardsville Township Community Building before anchoring at its current location.

The pantry, in the church's former farm building, is open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday.

Moody estimates about 750 people a year receive food or other services from the pantry, boosted by a $20,000 allocation from the United Way Partnership to serve the growing number of clients.

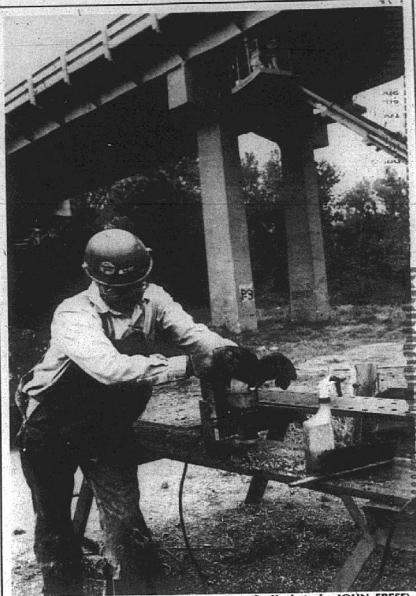

"It's increasing as Edwardsville's population grows. As many poor people move in, there's more," she said.

"A lot of times it is temporary for emergency things — layoffs, divorce, (ties) or jobs," she said.

As more people need help, the center will rely more and more on donations from the United Way Partnership and local organizations and churches. The pantry also may have to begin sponsoring fundraisers, Moody said.

The pantry's 1995 budget was $1,500; this year's is more than $100,000, she said.

The Tree House, located on Fosterburg Road, cares for up to 500 animals a year. Most are released back into their natural habitats, but about 50 animals, including several on endangered and threatened lists, live at the center.

Eagles, herons, egrets, owls, bobcats, coyotes, foxes and groundhogs are among the permanent residents, Moore said. Tree House does not care for domestic animals, songbirds and raccoons.

Two permanent resident bald eagles are in the care of the center, cage, and other cages, including the Hero Hilton, "who have been bandaged up year after year," Moore said. "We have three cages in desperate need of repair right now."

Fall is Tree House's traditional fund-raising season, and Moore hopes upcoming events will bring in enough money to allow the center to set up fund-raising booths at many fall festivals.

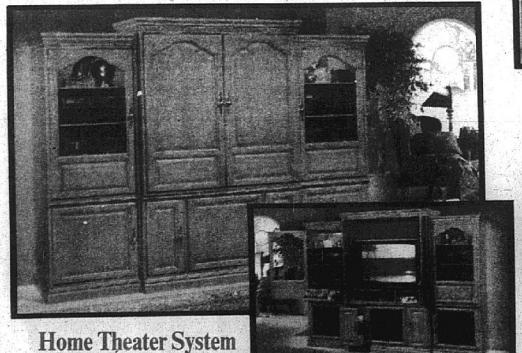

The center will hold an open house from noon to 5 p.m. Oct. 14 and 15.

A modern 'Rosie the Riveter'

Welding is job, college subject for local woman

Sherri Dobler of Granite City may not look the part of "Rosie the Riveter" — the patriotic, female war worker famous in song, story and film during World War II — but Dobler faces many of the same challenges as her predecessor of today.

Dobler is a single parent with a two-year-old daughter, a welder who works the midnight shift at A.O. Smith and Company in Granite City and a student at Belleville Area College.

Last spring, she visited BAC's Granite City Campus, discussed career options with a college counselor and enrolled in the welding program.

"I was tired of depending on others to help me out," said Dobler. "I needed to find a good job." Her four older brothers are carpenters, one is an operator and another is a supervisor. They said there were jobs for welders."

After completing the first semester of the program, Dobler was hired as a temporary welder at A.O. Smith. Eventually she was hired full-time and now works at the welding line where automobile frames are welded together and shipped to another site for assembly.

"When I first started working as a welder, it was tough," she said. "It helped that the other workers at the plant and students and instructors in the welding classes at BAC were always there to help."

Garner Kimbrell, coordinator of BAC's welding technology program, said Sherri Dobler is the type of worker employers are looking for. "She is a very conscientious and hard-working individual."

Belleville Area College instructor Richard Poston explains the detail on a drawing to Sherri Dobler, a student from Granite City. Dobler is enrolled in the welding technology program and is taking a blueprint reading class at BAC's Granite City Campus.

She said she is fortunate that her parents are very supportive and help out with her daughter. "After class, she worked in the lab until noon, practicing welding. Finally, she went home to sleep."

"It's like having three jobs — working, going to school and being a mom," she said. "It's not easy, but you've got to stick to it. My parents and the rest of my family are proud of me. I'm glad I didn't disappoint them."

She said she is fortunate that her parents are very supportive and help out with her daughter, because she often works late or seven days a week. "I'm also happy about the fact that I was able to buy myself a new car."

"I'm going to finish the welding program and then I would like to continue my education. I would like to be an electrical engineer."

She smiled and said she thought it was a compliment when anyone compared her to "Rosie the Riveter."

Midseason kicks in for area squads

During a high school football season that featured a "Get well" for coach Dick Hood of Belleville West and a "Good luck" to coach Bob Shamus of East St. Louis Senior High, there have been plenty of other highlights as the prep teams reach the halfway point.

While Hood recovered from injuries received in a freak accident at a West practice and Shamus recovered from a second heart attack that supported his resignation, a female placekicker had me wondering what other mysteries remain in 1995.

IN THE THIRD weekend of the season, Mehville (Mo.) topped Belleville East 33-6 at Township Stadium, where Sarah Houska kicked two 115-pound senior, boot-to-pants field goals.

Actually, Sarah was 2-for-3 and smart enough to kick up an errant snap from her center on a fourth-quarter attempt and lung enough to let officials blow the ball dead before being tackled by onrushing Lancers.

Yet, she had a first and second at the stadium as a fact verifier, according to Belleville West athletic director Al "Boots" Budde, whose response to Houska's points was "never."

Additional highlights include:

FRESHMAN: Alton's Tim Dougherty gave indications of '96 Tiger success in a 42-14 season-opening rout of East. Dougherty ran for TDs of 33 and 3 yards. Senior teammate Steffan Nicholson added scoring runs of 14 and 11 yards.

SACK A-FRACK: Althoff sacked Alton quarterback Rory Fox nine times in a 28-6 Crusaders victory in which tailback Lawrence Jackson, Jr., gained 132 yards and fullback Mike Garavilla ran for two TDs.

TD AND TD TIME: The "T" of Alton Taylor (102 yards) and the "D" of Matt Davis (85) of O'Fallon led to a 39-13 win at Mascoutah, where OTHS linebacker Tommie Bonner had four interceptions.

SWC SLUMP: When East St. Louis' Matt Reid had a 30-23 loss at Chicago Simeon, the defeat left Southwestern Conference schools with an 0-6 mark in the first weekend.

GROSS OUTVUL: Waterloo tailback Brett Gross helped spoil the Dupo coaching debut of Greg Fairchild. Gross scored four TDs, gained 108 yards, carried 20 times for 53 yards and recovered an onside kick in a 40-7 triumph.

BIG BOOTS: Aaron Emig had field goals of 41 and 23 yards in Alton's 13-7 win over East, whose sophomore team came on a 56-yard kickoff return by Darrell Scruggs.

FLYING EAGLE: Tim Riddle had two TDs and caught a 44-yard TD pass from Bart Jones as Columbia clipped Chester 32-14.

ROOKIE RAVES: Sophomore QB Byron Geffin boosted Cahokia's West 25-7 by throwing two TD passes and rushing for another.

STREAK HALT: Triad ended a 19-game slump against Alton Monday night, 14-0, with a lead by quarterback Jeff Johnson and four TD runs and one scoring pass.

BIG MIDGETS: First-year coach Dave Bone led Freeburg to 3-0 despite the absence of injured back track star Eric Bone. The Midgets topped Columbia 28-0 as Chris Rickard had three interceptions in the first half.

HORNE APLENTY: Herman Horne of Centralia had TD runs of 55 and 47 yards in a 41-21 win over Granite City.

UNFAMILIAR: Collinsville stood in first place in the SWC after pinning Alton 14-0, as Alberto Sienz ran for TDs of 16 and 1 yard.

OFFICIAL START: Saddled with a forfeit and resulting eight-game schedule, Lincoln exploded past Rockwood of St. Louis 39-0 as Carwin Howard hit Antwan Tompkins for three TD passes.

FLYER FIRST: The first victory for Edmund Jones, Shamus' replacement at East Side, came in a 58-27 thumping of West as Lawuan Powell threw five TD passes.

Warrior golfers now face the serious tournaments

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

The Granite City Warrior golfers have had their fun. Now it's time to get serious.

Granite City competed in the Centralia Invitational on Saturday, which was a nine-hole tournament. A total of three teams from each school on hand competed in the tournament.

The format can mean a more relaxed, fun atmosphere for the golfers, very much like the Granite City Scramble which was held earlier this month.

But all of that is history. The Warriors must now get down to basics as the conference and regional tournaments are approaching.

At Centralia, however, the Warriors finished ninth out of 12 teams. The tourney was won by Belleville East, who scored 215 as a team on the Greenview Golf Course in Centralia.

Finishing second was Simeon, whose Mascoutah was third (220) and Mt. Vernon was fourth (221). Belleville West was fifth and Collinsville and Nashville tied for sixth at 226.

TOPPING THE TWO-MAN competition was Brad Kunz and Josh Phillips of East, who combined to shoot a 140.5. Tied for fifth place was Granite City's team of Pat Schuman and David Martin, who fired a 2-under 70.

"As a team, we could have maybe done a little better," said Warrior coach Eugene Chaney. "Certainly Pat and David shot very well. I think they're good golfers."

Other scores for Granite City included the team of Tim Harris and Dan Ray, who finished at 77; and Chris Carpenter and Pat Logan, who fired a combined 84.

Chaney said the relaxed atmosphere helps some of the golfers. He said the Granite Scramble provides good breaks from the grind of the season, which is quickly nearing its end.

The east St. Louis Flyers should have known that they would get a battle from the Granite City Warriors on Saturday. But they still weren't ready at the beginning of the game.

Granite City stormed out to a 14-lead, but the Flyers found their game in the second quarter and went on to defeat the Warriors 36-10. In a Southwest Conference match-up played at Jordan Stadium in East St. Louis.

In the past, no team has played the Flyers harder than the Warriors, but East St. Louis apparently figured they could go through the motions on Saturday and still win the game.

"We are going to play us tough, all through the game," said East Side coach Edmund Jones. "They always seem ready for us, but we weren't ready for them today."

Granite City (1-4 overall, 1-2 SWC) got a spark from running back Matt Kelahan, who was playing his first game of the year. Kelahan scored a pair of first-quarter touchdowns to give the Warriors a 14-lead after one period.

But East Side (2-3, 2-0) tallied the next 36 points before the Warriors forced a touchdown with just 36 seconds left in the game.

GC's Kelahan comes off injury list, scores big

For 12 minutes on Saturday, it could have been any better for the Warriors.

Granite City came out playing their best football of the season Saturday in a Southwest Conference game with East St. Louis. Even though they wanted to do in the first quarter, they did with ease.

The Warriors, although just 1-4, continue to achieve one their much-mooted objectives for the season: constant improvement.

"BEFORE THE SEASON, that's one thing we told the kids: You have to go out and show improvement every week," said coach Tim Jones. "They've done that, and they've also proven that they never quit."

Granite City's last slowdown against the Flyers did more than make the final score respectable. "We had a lot of guys playing both ways today, so I'm sure they're not tired. There's a lot of heart on this team, but they're not afraid. They could have done that in the fourth quarter today, but they didn't," Harris said.

Kelahan
During two long scoring drives in the first quarter in which the Warriors took a 14-lead on the talented Flyers, Granite City used the run and the pass to perfection.

Using quick-hits runs, quarterback Kevin Harris was 6 for 6 in the first quarter. On the half, Harris was 13 for 17, for 117 yards.

BUT POSSIBLY the biggest addition to the Warrior lineup was senior running back Matt Kelahan, who was playing his first game since the season after coming off the injury list.

Kelahan sparked his team with two touchdowns runs of three and four yards.

Harris said it was a long time coming, and he's not yet in game shape, but he adds a big dimension to the Warrior offense.

"Matt practiced with us last week, but we didn't want to play him against Collinsville."

Experience main goal for freshman team

Adding a freshman tournament to the volleyball schedule turned out to be a good idea.

Granite City hosted its first freshman volleyball tournament last weekend, with excellent results unless you were rooting for the host Warriors.

The Warriors were able to pick up a win during the tournament, which began at 8:30 in the morning and lasted to well after 3 p.m. But coach Deb Germano was pleased.

"They played better than they did last week, and we're getting better as a team, slowly but surely. I saw progress there, but we still need to get some more wins."

The freshman Warriors are 1-3 this season, but Germano's squad is behind most schools when it comes to fundamentals.

"We have an off-season program, we're doing things like the expanded off-season programs they have in Belleville and some other areas."

That's one reason why the tournament is an important one. Besides the chance to experience the competition, simply playing several games in one day can help a team down the road.

"At this level the more playing time they can get the better," Germano said. "We have

Tri-City hosts first U.S. Modified Series visit here

The biggest modified event ever at Tri-City Speedway will take place on Oct. 7 at the United States Modified Series makes its first visit to Granite City.

The lineup of racers for the Octoberfest Nationals will feature many of the top modified drivers in the country, and also many familiar faces.

John and Tom Seets, of Brighton, Ill., will be on hand to enter the track's first ever race at Tri-City and to help beat the heat.

They will join up to 60 other racers, including USMS points leader and two-time series winner Kelly Shroyer of Story City, Iowa. John Allen of Chanute, Kan., is currently second in the point standings, and he also qualified to headline.

Other drivers include Mike Chasteen of Paris, Ill., Clint Pursey of Locust Grove, Okla., Jack Byers of Hartley, Iowa, and Danny Wallace of Des Moines, Iowa. Between them, the group has over 300 career feature wins.

Not far behind the series is the versatile Steve Christman of Fort Wayne, Ind. Christman's appearance at Tri-City will be his first ever USMS race.

Christman has raced for over 20 years and competed in almost every type of race car; from Winston Cup to short track late models on dirt and asphalt tracks. Now he has apparently settled on the modified race car.

Kelahan

Don Harris said. "We decided this week that he was ready. It will take him some time to get back to playing shape, but he really adds something to our team. When he's in there, it adds a lot of confidence to our whole team."

Kelahan finished with 54 yards on 15 carries; and with Billy Niepert's 66 yards on 17 carries, the Flyers weren't sure who was going to get the ball next.

"THAT'S THE WAY it's always been between these two teams," said Flyer coach Edmund Jones. "We never know what they're going to do offensively. Coach Harris really mixes up the plays well. We always get a good fight from this team."

The Warrior receiving corps played well also. Kelahan caught four passes for 50 yards, while Bobby Ellis grabbed three passes for 50 yards and Jason Moad caught four for 20 yards, including a 2-point conversion.

Although the Warrior defense had its share of problems with the Flyer attack, it's safe to say that all SWC teams will have that problem this year.

"We did everything we wanted to do in that first quarter, but then we let them come back," Harris said. "But I'm not faulting them (the players). We gave it everything we had."

four tournaments this year, and three of them just a week or so apart. There's a lot of games and a lot of playing time for the kids.

"They're working hard, and they're executing much better. As long as we continue to work hard and give 110 percent, then I'm happy with them. Our goal is to get them out of this (small) gym and into the other (main) gym. We want to get them ready for the next level."

Granite City will travel to Hazelwood East this Friday for a tournament, and Wood River on Saturday for another tournament.

"The girls have guaranteed three matches each day. On Oct. 14, the team will play in the Collinsville Freshmen Tournament, which is usually a very difficult tournament."

We received compliments from many coaches and parents. The whole thing was run very smooth and efficient. We have another tournament a couple weeks ago made it easy because we knew exactly what we needed to do. The competition was also good, so it was really a fun weekend."

But this past weekend, eight teams were at GCHS for the freshman tournament. Belleville West and East each won their pool competition. West narrowly defeated East in the championship game 10-15, 15-6 and 15-13.

Althoff placed third, as they defeated Triad 15-6, 16-14.

The Warriors dropped pool matches to Civic Memorial (15-10, 15-8); Triad (15-6, 15-7); and East (15-4, 15-7).

Overall, Germany said the tournament was a big success. She thanked the community helpers, including coaches Ruth Layton and Cindy Gagich. Also pitching in were the GC Boosters, as well as many varsity and junior varsity players.

"This is something we would definitely like to do every year," she said. "It's convenient for the players and for the parents to have the perfect set-up here, with two gyms."

"We received compliments from many coaches and parents. The whole thing was run very smooth and efficient. We have another tournament a couple weeks ago made it easy because we knew exactly what we needed to do. The competition was also good, so it was really a fun weekend."

The Warriors came out fired up, and put together some strong drives in the first quarter to stun the surprisingly sparse crowd at Jordan Stadium.

They took the opening kickoff and drove 96 yards on six plays. A 34-yard pass from Harris to Bobby Ellis and a Flyer face mask penalty put the Warriors in position to score, and Kelahan went from 5 to 30.

After the Flyers went three-and-out, the Warriors reeled off another long drive; this one going 58 yards on 11 plays. Harris was a perfect 6 for 6 in the first quarter, and his father and coach Don Harris said it was as good as he had seen his son play this year.

"We marched down the field, and did just about anything and everything we wanted to," Don Harris said. "But East Side made some adjustments, and took away our outside (running) game. It's us to go up the middle. Once they stopped our run, and we had to pass, they really came at us."

Jones said he was concerned in the first quarter, but it had nothing to do with the score.

At the point I just wanted us to start executing. I was looking for somebody to step up and take some responsibility. I wasn't worried about the score."

Beginning with the first series of the second quarter, the Flyers looked like a team who could contend for a conference title.

Reid scored from four yards out with three minutes gone in the second; and after the Flyers stopped the Warriors on fourth down Reid rammed 75 yards on the Flyer's first offensive play.

East Side also came out in the second half on fire. Powell eventually hit Eddie Johnson for a 19-yard TD to cap the quick five-play drive. But the Warriors responded with a 10-yard TD right back in the game when they drove to the Flyer 15-yard line on the next series.

However, a costly fumble by the Warriors stopped East Side's six plays later Powell hit Javar Holman from 11 yards to give the Flyers a commanding 30-14 lead.

RSVP honors own at awards ceremony

Senior citizens will be honored for giving their time to help others when Belleville Area College's Retired and Senior Volunteer Program holds its annual awards ceremony at 11 a.m. Friday, Sept. 29, at Fischer's Restaurant in Belleville.

RSVP is part of the college's Programs and Services for Older Persons. The luncheon will honor approximately 1,100 senior volunteers who work in agencies, hospitals, libraries, nursing homes and schools.

RSVP volunteers, who have contributed 10, 15 or 20 years of service will receive commemorative pins.

Ron Riegel, chairman of the 1995 RSVP Awards Ceremony and a member of the Program Advisory Council, said the ceremony will be a well-deserved tribute for those who volunteer to help people at all ages.

"I am personally grateful for the time and effort put in by all our volunteers," Riegel said. "I look forward to a big crowd and a good time."

Riegel added people could show their gratitude by spending a volunteer, at a cost of $9.75, for the luncheon portion of the ceremony.

The RSVP Orchestra will provide entertainment from 10 to 11 a.m. followed by a program from 1 to 2 p.m. following the luncheon. During the luncheon, the "Strolling Musicians," Richard Jeffries and Bob Kriegel, will perform.

For more information, call PSOP at 234-4410 or 1-800-BAC-5131, extension 359.

Learn to manage your time

"I don't have time to go."

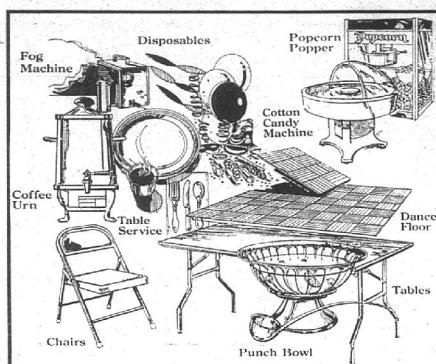

"It would be ironic," says seminar lecturer Cindy Burkett, "if that were to be your response to this invitation." Why? Because the new seminar she's presenting is entitled "Time and Priority Management." And its purpose is to allow you more time to do the things you never find time to do.

Scheduled to begin on Oct. 1, the series continues every Sunday morning through the end of January. Each session will be from 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. at City Temple Assembly of God, 4751 Maryville Road in Granite City.

"People aren't coping well in today's pressure-packed world," said Burkett. "We need to make more decisions, make more arrangements, work longer hours, earn more money, than ever before. Conflicts within the home, and in social circles, are also at an all-time high. It's no wonder many people are 'at the end of their rope.' It doesn't have to be this way."

Those wishing to preregister for the seminar may call 631-1365. Couples who attend together, or Sunday school classes for newborn through high school are available for your children.

Couples already married and those who might be considering marriage or are engaged are encouraged to attend.

Wednesday, Sept. 27
A lunar aspect (square) of Uranus retrograde in Capricorn and the moon in Scorpio causes a sticky situation between you and your mate. Those who overcome the odds are greatly rewarded later.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). You and a relative grow closer through your correspondence. A new schoolmate or co-worker finds you enchanting. Prepare over a meeting or fund-raiser this afternoon. Your spouse or lover helps you find a bargain.

You are fortunate enough to be the bearer of good news today.

Be polite but firm with a colleague who inquires into your personal life. Your spouse or lover makes a sacrifice on your behalf.

Food & Nutrition

Wise Ways

Grandma would be proud of you when you eat oatmeal for breakfast — and you would be healthier.

INSIDE

Heart-y Bites

Dessert deserves to be on the table, too.

Blue Ribbon Cook

A winning appetizer is handy to keep in the freezer.

INSIDE

Hometown Test Run

Locally produced food ingredients, like bottled Imo's pizza sauce, can be a boon in everyday cooking, according to Suburban Journal readers.

INSIDE

Micro Raves

Drying fruit into "leather" gets its convenient start in a microwave oven.

Lively Taste

Horseradish is a zippy flavor enhancer. Prepared horseradish has no fat, very little sodium and few calories, but should be used cautiously because of its concentrated flavor. Mayonnaise-like horseradish sauce contains about 5 grams fat per tablespoon, with increased calories and sodium as well.

Health & Fitness

Medicine Chest

Many people — even those who are eating conscientiously — do not get enough calcium. Women are especially short on this mineral. Young women up to age 24, those bearing children, and women at menopause and beyond should get at least 1,200 milligrams calcium per day. Many health professionals believe the women between those ages also should get as much. One cup milk or low-fat yogurt has about 200 milligrams, 1 ounce cheese or 3 ounces salmon canned with bones has about 200 milligrams, and 1/2 cup ice cream or cooked broccoli has almost 100 milligrams calcium.

Fresh Picks

Packaged mini carrots are a boon for the occasional or hurried snack. When peeled, they are ready to use as a snack, in salads or in main dishes. A slightly "chalky" or dry surface is due to their peeled state, not their age. Rinse them in cold water 20 to 30 seconds to bring out their bright orange color. Refrigerate them in the original bag. Once opened, squeeze out excess air and reclose tightly, like a bread bag, up to 2 weeks.

Big Fat Tip

Fragrance and moistness add to the enjoyment of food. For instance, boned, skinned chicken breasts can be marinated several hours in a mixture of soy sauce, ginger, lemon zest, crushed garlic, black pepper and brown sugar. Wine or water can extend the mixture, if desired. The cooking aroma of the chicken invites diners to enjoy the results.

Future Shop

The Japanese again may be a step ahead. A hot n' n' idea is sake to go. The microwave-safe packaging includes a helping of sake — an alcohol beverage from fermented rice — in a bag with a transparent dome on the lid for holding roasted nuts. Vendors in American football domes could satisfy fans in a hurry if a favorite brew came with a piggyback portion of peanuts or popcorn.

By Janice Denham
Staff writer

Once upon a time, in a strange land where seafood came only in cans, there was tuna. And salmon when the king came to dinner. And fresh fish was served when someone caught it.

It's a brave new world.

Now there is real seafood pretending to be other real seafood. That's what surimi is.

It is ready to eat straight from the package, precooked and usually frozen so it can be used in hot or cold dishes. It thaws in minutes and only needs to be heated through.

In addition to having the "fishy" flavor of crab, lobster, shrimp or whatever shellfish it is imitating, the pollock — a lean, white-fleshed fish similar to cod — has a slightly sweet, clean flavor, so it is ready to dive right into and absorb flavors swirling around it.

First developed by the Japanese about 1100 A.D., surimi came to the U.S. as a high-sodium product. The salt has been decreased, varying by brand with individual profiles listed on the package.

Like other real fish, it is low in calories, low in cholesterol and high in protein. It is low in fat, with some now claiming to be fat-free.

It makes a delicious protein addition to salad, soup, sandwich, quiche, omelet, dip or pizza. When using frozen vegetables for stir-fry, add it 1 to 2 minutes after the vegetables.

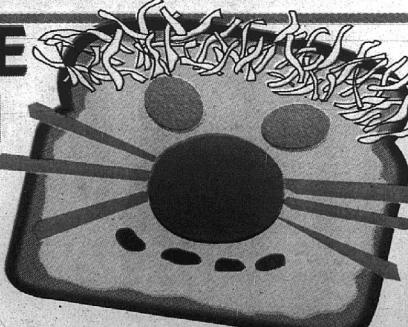

Surimi takes well to red, white and any other sauce for pasta. It can be found as an inexpensive replacement on the ubiquitous crab dip, with layers, rising from bottom to top, of cream cheese, chili or cocktail sauce and surimi.

FUNNY-FACE SANDWICH

Toast 1 slice whole wheat bread. Spread with 2 tablespoons unsweetened applesauce. To make face, center nose with a vanilla wafer. Make scraggly hair with coconut. Eye up the lunch pal with a couple grapes and encourage a smile with raisins. The non-ferocious whiskers can be carrot sticks.

Today's Food

Hometown Test Run

Imo's pizza sauce could be the start of something big at the home of fans of the thin-crust pizza.

Local pizza sauce judged on merits

The family probably remembers the telephone number of the local pizza parlor better than the ones they call to talk to their favorite Aunt Susan. Today's Hometown Test Run is like looking at the first three numbers of the phone number for Imo's.

It's just the same, ma'am, just the sauce.

A 12-ounce (1/4-cup) bottle of Imo's pizza sauce costs $1.79 at Dierbergs.

Regular pasta sauce is warmed with plain bread sticks. One taster tested it later on a cheesy pizza from an office machine as a late lunch, which probably came closest to its usual use.

"It's nice and dark red," he said. "It has a zesty taste. It made me hungry for ordering a real pizza."

The longer the sauce was out of the bottle, the thicker its consistency and the spicier its flavor seemed to become.

"The spices take over the tomato flavor," one of the bread-stick tasters said. She said the cheese probably meshes with the sauce flavor on a pizza prepared by Imo's.

Another taster said her family would like the sauce because it did not have a prominent tomato flavor, so it would be easy to use on snacks she prepares on cocktail rye bread.

The spiciness came under close scrutiny. Some called the initial impact mild, while others warmed up to its level quickly.

"It has a nice rich and tangy flavor with just enough spices," a taster said.

Freeze chili cheese spread; German recipes due

Christine Willbrand, St. Charles, is the winner of this week's recipe contest for Chilled Cheese Spread. For it she wins a prize of dinner certificates from the Pasta House Co.

The recipe is easy to make and handy to use. Willbrand says it is "a great appetizer for football games. I also like the way I can freeze it and eat it any time."

Its flavor has plenty of zing. It can be garnished before serving with fresh parsley sprigs or chopped jalapeno pepper for eye appeal.

Recipes in this month's German Fest Recipe Contest should be postmarked by Friday, Sept. 30, for consideration as winner each of the four weeks in October.

One recipe per household can be sent to: German Fest Recipe Contest, Suburban Journals, 1714 Deer Tracks Trail, St. Louis, Mo. 63131.

As usual, if there is a history to the recipe, it will be considered part of the entry. Along with taste and eye appeal, it will be used as a basis for selecting winners. Originality will be considered although the recipe need not be original. Possible names for the recipe's source. Include the name of the Journal you receive.

Winners are notified by mail. Duplicate entries will be considered on basis of earlier entry or best compliance with the rules. Contest winners may enter again six months after the prize-winning publication date.

Desserts do not desert table

Dinner is just over. Grilled flank steak, roasted vegetables, warm whole-wheat rolls, a bowl of late-summer fresh fruits merged with delightful conversation. The sunset is breathtaking. But there is still a little piece of appetite left over for something chewy and sweet — possibly a cookie, maybe a slice of cake.

How can that piece of cake or cookie fit into a heart-healthy diet?

Desserts do not have to be a forbidden food. They can be part of healthy eating plan.

The key to healthy eating is to eat a variety of foods and to eat just enough to satisfy hunger. Eating portions larger than the body needs leads to ingesting too many calories and too much fat and cholesterol.

This is especially true with dessert.

Dessert-type foods tend to be concentrated in fat and cholesterol. A small serving goes a long way. There are other ways to enhance nutrition without loading up on excess calories, especially fat calories:

Eat fresh fruit, low-fat cookies, gelatin, low-fat frozen yogurt and pudding made with skim milk.

Start by preparing foods with less fat and cholesterol. Replace whole eggs with egg whites and yolk-free egg products. Skim milk can replace whole milk or creamer in a recipe or packaged mix.

In many recipes it is not desirable to delete all the high-fat ingredients. The trick is to use small portions of some high-fat ingredients and substitute low-fat ingredients where possible.

Crunchy cereal can be added to a recipe in place of high-fat nuts. This recipe for Chocolate Cookies is an example.

Select recipes or foods prepared with unsaturated fats. These "good" fats are still 100 percent fat, so use limited quantities.

Unsaturated fats include oils such as those made from olives, canola, corn, sesame, soybean and sunflower. Avoid the saturated fats: butter, lard and coconut and palm products.

Fruit puree — applesauce and prune puree are used less often but can replace all or some fat in a recipe. The puree moistens and sweetens baked products.

Registered dietitian Christy Robuck is a member of the nutrition committee of the American Heart Association, St. Louis Chapter.

The next "I Love Eating" class will be held from 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 24, at Moore Food Distributors, 9910 Page Ave.

The topic will be "Fresh Breads, Light and Healthy." For information or reservations for this free event, call 467-255-9910. Lunch brown-baggers are welcome.

Autumn's apples harvest fresh ideas for salad

The crunch of a crisp apple is one of the gems in autumn's crown. It tells of a plentiful harvest, of the stability of food that will nourish a world hungry for its fresh experience.

Apples are so commonplace they are taken for granted most of the year. However, a new fall crop brings old-fashioned goodness back.

If apple desserts seem commonplace, spring into fall's delight for the fruit by creating new salad combinations. The crispness of cabbage, lettuce and watercress are given a run for their greens in these new side- and main-dish combinations.

THAI APPLE SLAW

1/2 cup apples (gala suggested), cored, cut in eights, thinly sliced lengthwise
1/2 cup shredded cabbage
1/2 tsp. Thai Sesame Dressing
1/2 tsp. toasted sesame seeds

1/2 tbsp. chopped peanuts

In large bowl, combine apple and cabbage. Toss gently with Thai Sesame Dressing. Chill at least 1 hour, up to 12 hours, to blend flavors.

To serve, garnish salad with sesame seeds and peanuts.

Thai Sesame Dressing: In jar with tight-fitting lid, combine 1/4 cup rice vinegar, 2 tablespoons oil, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon low-sodium soy sauce; 1/2 teaspoons sesame oil (optional) and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Seal jar. Shake well. Makes about 1/2 cup.

Makes 6 servings; 126 calories, 2 g protein, 16 g carbohyhydrate, 6 g fat, 161 mg sodium, no cholesterol and 3 g fiber each.

Serving idea: Serve with grilled chicken or roast pork.

CRUNCHY APPLE WALNUT SALAD

2 apples (braeburn or fuji suggested), cored, cut in bite-size pieces
6 cups mixed salad greens
1/4 cup (1 oz.) chopped walnuts

Walnut Dressing
2 to 3 tablespoons freshly grated parmesan cheese

In large salad bowl, combine apple, greens and walnuts.

At serving time, shake Walnut Dressing well. Toss with greens mixture. Sprinkle with parmesan cheese. Toss thoroughly.

Walnut Dressing: In small jar with tight-fitting lid, combine 1/4 cup walnut or olive oil, 2 tablespoons apple juice, 2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon Dijon mustard, 1/4 teaspoon salt and freshly ground pepper to taste. Shake well. Makes about 1/2 cup.

Makes 6 servings; 175 calories, 3 g protein, 14 g carbohydrate, 13 g fat, 145 mg sodium, 1 mg cholesterol each.

BEEFY APPLE MEAL SALAD

Creamy Horseradish Dressing
2 apples (braeburn suggested), cored, cut in bite-size pieces

1 lb. red new potatoes, cooked peeled if desired, cubed

1 bunch watercress sprigs, tough stems discarded (about 4 cups)

12 to 16 oz. cooked roast beef, sliced

Minced chives for garnish

In large bowl, combine Creamy Horseradish Dressing with apple and potato. Toss gently.

Divide watercress and diced roast beef among 4 plates. Spoon apple and potato mixture over beef. Garnish with chives.

Creamy Horseradish Dressing: Combine 1/2 plain low-fat yogurt, 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish, 1 teaspoon lemon juice and 1/8 teaspoon freshly ground pepper. Makes about 1/2 cup.

Makes 4 main-dish servings; 399 calories, 28 g protein, 42 g carbohydrate, 13 g fat, 111 mg sodium, 70 mg cholesterol and 5 g fiber each.

A trio of salads — top to bottom, Thai Apple Slaw, Crunchy Apple Walnut Salad and Beefy Apple Meal Salad — gives fresh apples new and crunchy appeal.

Little banana logs take easy turn into crescents

When the baking "bug" bites, turn favorite flavors into a bite of sweet temptation.

Banana, almonds and chocolate are the ingredients to choose for Banana Crescents. The creamy, moist texture of an extra-ripe banana is folded into old-fashioned cookie dough which adds pulverized almonds to the flour.

Rather than rolling, cutting and rolling to make the crescent shape, the batter simply is formed into a log and turned to create the shape. After baking, a tip of each cookie can be dipped in a bit of melted chocolate for the final temptation on a party buffet or to give as a gift.

These cookies are so attractive and flavorful that one or two will satisfy the craving to create a sweet that is a treat. The fruit flavor would match a cup of raspberry-flavored coffee or a few dried apricots, figs or dates on the side.

BANANA CRES-CENTS

1/2 cup chopped almonds, toasted

6 tbsp. sugar
1/2 cup (1 stick) margarine, cut in pieces

1 1/2 cups plus 2 tbsp. flour

1/8 tsp. salt

1 extra-ripe, medium banana, pureed to 1/2 cup

2 to 3 oz. semisweet chocolate chips

Pulverize almonds with 2 tablespoons sugar, using food processor or blender if desired.

Beat together margarine, almonds, remaining 4 table- spoons sugar, flour and salt. Mix in banana until well blended.

Using 1 tablespoon batter at a time, roll into log, then shape into crescent. Place on ungreased cookie sheet.

Bake in preheated oven 25 minutes or until golden. Cool on rack.

In microwave-safe dish, melt chocolate and (melted) butter 1/2 to 2 minutes, stirring once. Dip end of cookies in chocolate. Refrigerate until chocolate hardens.

Makes 2 dozen cookies; 114 calories, 2 g protein, 6 g fat, 13 g carbohydrate, 56 mg sodium and no cholesterol of each.

HOW TO ## PLACE AN AD

There are four easy ways to place your ad:

BRING IT IN: Call 877-7700 or dial 876-2000. Phone lines are open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

FAX IT: Send your ad directly to our Classified Fax Center at (618) 876-2420. We'll call you back for confirmation.

MAIL IT: Send your ads to: Classified, Granite City Free-Press Journal, 1815 Delmar, Granite City, IL 62040.

PAY FOR AN AD

You will be billed immediately following last month's issue. You may pay in person, through the phone or fax. We accept cash, checks, credit cards, MC/VISA (Discover). When paying over the phone, please have your credit card ready. When faxing your ad, just type in the amount you owe and we'll call you back for confirmation. Please do not send cash through the mail. Some ads require prepayment.

WRITE AN AD

Capture the reader's attention with a large, bold type headline. Tell them up front what you're selling or seeking. Describe what you want, what you offer, details such as colors and condition. Avoid abbreviations; they make ad harder to read and less effective. Include your phone number and the hours you are available. Always include the price; it will increase your responses.

CANCEL AN AD

Designate for ad cancellation one identical to deadlines for ad placement. You may cancel ads in person or over the phone. To cancel an ad, phone 877-7700 or 876-2000.

NEWS

New whooping cough vaccines found safer, more effective

Three new whooping cough vaccines have been shown to be more effective and to have fewer side effects than current vaccines in large clinical trials conducted in Italy and Sweden.

Officials at the National Institute of Health said they will attempt to accelerate approval for use of the new vaccine in the United States.

Whooping cough is a very contagious respiratory disease that infects more than 50 million people worldwide and causes about 350,000 deaths annually. A vaccine against the disease, also called pertussis, is one of the routine childhood inoculations now used in the United States.

In the drug trials in Italy and Sweden, the three new vaccines were found to protect more than 84 percent of vaccinated children and caused fewer side effects than the vaccine now used in the United States.

The new vaccine uses only parts of the pertussis bacteria to prompt the body to become immune. The vaccine now in use in the United States is a whole cell vaccine that uses the entire killed pertussis organism. A whole cell vaccine also tested in Italy and Sweden had protection rates of 36 percent to 48 percent.

Dr. Anthony S. Fauci, the director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases at NIH, said his agency is working closely with the Food and Drug Administration and vaccine manufacturers to ensure that the new pertussis vaccines are available in the United States as soon as possible.

In the meantime, Fauci recommended that parents continue to protect their children against whooping cough using the currently available vaccine.

"While whole cell pertussis vaccines have saved tens of thousands of lives and have long been the cornerstone of childhood immunization programs in the United States," said Fauci, "the new vaccines "promise to become the new gold standard in pertussis immunization."

College news

Iowa Wesleyan College
Members of the Iowa Wesleyan College chapters of Alpha Xi Delta and Pi Beta Phi sororities have initiated several formal and informal activities to give interested students an opportunity to become acquainted with the Greek system and its members.

Lori Harris of Granite City is a Pi Beta Phi candidate for 1995.

Beta Chapter, Alpha Xi Delta and Iowa Wesleyan College is the oldest chapter in existence. It was chartered in 1902 and was originally College Chapter S of the P.E.O. Sisterhood. The organization of Pi Beta Phi was established at Iowa Wesleyan College in 1888 and is the oldest chapter in continuous existence.

Iowa Wesleyan College, affiliated with the United Methodist Church, is a four-year liberal arts college emphasizing community service and an academic curriculum focused on life skills. During the orientation, James M. Dennis, president of McKendree College, told the students they should have certain expectations of the college and that those expectations should include a quality educational experience, a faculty and staff that is caring and interested in students, a safe environment and as McKendree graduates a degree of great value. Dennis said that students and parents attending a new student orientation luncheon that McKendree will meet those expectations.

Dennis also said that the college has high expectations of the students. He said he expects them to be serious students who will be challenged and pushed hard to act as adults. "We also expect you to leave McKendree better than it is today," Dennis said. *****

Tina Scaturro, a 1992 graduate of Granite City High School, will serve as president of both Kappa Lambda Iota and Sigma Zeta chapters at McKendree in the 1995-96 academic year. Scaturro is the daughter of Robert and Donna Scaturro of Granite City.

Patton is the son of Richard and Donna Patton of Granite City. Patton intends to double major in biology and premedicine at McKendree.

Pieper is the daughter of Kathy and Alan Pieper of Granite City. Pieper intends to major in premedicine at McKendree.

The orientation was held to help incoming freshmen make the transition to college life.

This year's freshman class is the largest in McKendree's history.

It is also the most diverse in percentage increase over last year.

The freshman average ACT score is also up from 21.8

to 22.4 and the grade point average for incoming freshmen is up from 3.1 to 3.4.
